REFATORY NOTE.

The Directors and the Secretary of the New Gallery desire to tender their most grateful thanks to the Duke of Wellington and the members of the Committee for the assistance they have afforded in organising the present Exhibition, and for the valuable contributions which they and other ladies and gentlemen have made of pictures and other works of art.

They also wish to record their deep sense of obligation to those who have taken a more active part in the practical organisation of the Exhibition; in particular to Mr. H. A. Grueber and Mr. Isidore Spielmann, for their arduous labours in the arrangement of the various exhibits and in the preparation of the catalogue; to Sir Charles Robinson, M. R. de Madrazo, Mr. C. H. Read, Mr. F. M. O'Donoghue, Mr. Herbert Cook, Mr. Cunninghame Graham, Mr. Guy Laking, Mr. Philip Norman, and Mr. S. J. Whawell, for the advice and assistance they have given in the selection of the various exhibits, and also to Mrs. H. Gordon, Miss Una Taylor, Miss Thomas, and Miss Elinor Hallé in selecting and cataloguing the lace and embroideries.

The Directors of the New Gallery hope next winter to continue the present series of exhibitions by illustrating the Art of France.

LEONARD C. LINDSAY,

Secretary.

WEST GALLERY.

FIRST ROOM.

1. FERDINAND OF ARAGON, AND ISABELLA OF CASTILE, WITH THEIR PATRON SAINTS.

Two volets of a triptych; on the left, the king kneeling to right; behind him stands St. Ferdinand holding sword; on the right Isabella kneeling to left; behind her stands St. Anne supporting on her arm the Virgin and Child; below under each volet there is a shield with the arms of the family of Manuel Condes de Carrion; doubtless the former possessors of the picture. Circa 1500. Panel  $17\frac{1}{2} \times 6$  in. each.

By ANTONIO DEL RINCON.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

2. VIRGIN AND CHILD, AND ST. ANNE.

The Virgin, in crimson and yellow cloak (the livery colours of Aragon), kneeling on a raised stone dais supporting the Infant Saviour, who is caressing a lamb; near them is St. Anne holding an open book in her hand, and seated on a stone platform, from which rises a canopy or throne lined with a long panel of blue and gold brocade ; the background forms a beautiful landscape, with buildings and a grove of trees on the margin of a lake bounded by distant mountains. Panel 19 × 13 in.

Acquired at Seville from the collection of the Canonigo Cepero. (J. C. Robinson, Memoranda on Fifty Pictures.)

By ALEXEO FERNANDEZ.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

3. CHRIST BEARING THE CROSS.

Half-length figure of Christ ; head turned to left, bearing the Cross. Circa 1520.
Panel 24 × 20 in.

Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1880.

By LUIS DE MORALES.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

4. THE ANNUNCIATION : TWO VOILETS OF A TRIPTYCH.

On the right volet the Virgin kneeling to right before a table ; head turned to left.
On the left volet an angel kneeling to right ; before him a scroll with the inscription AVE MARIA GRATIA PLENA. Signed MAISTRE JU DE BURGOS PITOR. Panel 20 × 8 in. each. Circa 1450.

Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1880.

By JUAN DE BURGOS.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

5. THE MEETING OF JOACHIM AND ANNA AT THE GOLDEN GATE OF THE TEMPLE.

In the centre of the composition Joachim and Anna are seen embracing each other ; a flying angel extends his arms above their heads ; on the left a shepherd enters with a lamb on his shoulders, and on the right a maidservant, both in attitudes expressive of reverential surprise at the holy salutation. Panel 33 × 28 in.

This panel is believed to be from the retablo of the suppressed Bernardine Convent at Valdeiglesias. (J. C. Robinson, Memoranda on Fifty Pictures.)

By DIEGO CORREA.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

6. AN ANGEL.

By JUAN DE JUANES.

Lent by M. LÉON SOMZÉE.

7. ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

9. AN APOSTLE.

By JUAN DE JUANES.

Lent by M. LÉON SOMZÉE.

10. PORTRAIT OF A SPANISH LADY

Three-quarter-length figure, life-size, standing to right, wearing black dress richly embroidered with gold brocade, white sleeves, long black hair adorned with large jewels; in right hand she holds a fan; her left takes a flower from a dish, which stands on a table. Canvas 43 x 36 in.

By JUAN CARREÑO DE MIRANDA.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

11. CHARLES II., KING OF SPAIN (A.D. 1665-1700).

Full-length life-size figure, about eight years old, standing slightly turned to right, looking at the spectator, wearing black and white dress; in right hand his hat; his left extended; behind him lies a lion to right; globe to left; in the background, table on which is a crown placed on a cushion, and red curtains. Canvas 61 x 36 in.

This picture is in its original frame with the royal monogram.

SPANISH SCHOOL. MASTER UNKNOWN

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

12. Jael and Sisera.

In the centre on the ground lies Sisera in armour, the nail driven through his temple ; on the right stands Jael holding the hammer in her right hand, wearing dress with blue bodice and green skirt, white chemisette with sleeves ; beside her stands a general in complete armour ; behind him are four attendants ; on the left stands another figure in armour and plumed hat, his back to the spectator, and contemplating the dead Sisera ; his left hand holds banner ; through an arcade in the background is seen a building with yoke of oxen and a waggon. Canvas 47 × 51 in.

This picture is believed to have been painted by Velazquez in 1623. The suit of armour in which Sisera is clad was painted from the actual suit made in the antique Roman style for the Emperor Charles V., which is still preserved in the Madrid armoury. The figure in full suit of armour on the right is a posthumous portrait of the great Duke of Alva ; that on the left of the Conde Duque Olivarez, prime minister of Philip IV. and the first patron and protector of Velazquez. The composition is supposed to be intended as an allegorical illustration or reference to the assassination of William the Silent of Holland, the chief enemy of Spain in the preceding century. The picture bears a monogrammatic or abbreviated signature in the right hand lower corner.

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

13. Christ with St. Peter and St. John.

Half-length, life-size, figure of Christ, full face, in the act of benediction, in blue dress and red mantle ; St. Peter on the left ; St. John on the right. Panel 29 × 24 in.

Aregio, a follower of Leonardo da Vinci, in conjunction with Francesco de Napoli, painted the famous altar-piece of the Cathedral of Valencia.

By PABLO DE AREGIO.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

14. Portrait of Don Francisco de Ribas, Corregidor de Madrid and Knight of Santiago.

Half-length, life-size figure, full face, with bushy black hair, black dress ; he holds a letter in right hand ; the jewel of the order of Santiago pendent from a ribbon on his dress and a large embroidered red cross of the same order on his sleeve. Canvas (oval) 38 × 31 in.

The face only by Velazquez ; the picture being said to have been left unfinished at the death of the painter. All the rest is by a later hand, by whom the picture was completed.

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

15. Portrait of Don Baltasar Carlos, Eldest Son of Philip IV. and Isabel de Bourbon (A.D. 1629-1646).

Small full-length figure, standing slightly turned to right, head facing, in armour ; bâton in right hand ; left on helmet, which rests on table ; on the left, lion with globe; above, eagle flying; red curtain and landscape in the background. Canvas 33 × 19 in.

From the collection of the Marquis de Santa Cruz of the Asturias.

By JUAN BAUTISTA DEL MAZO MARTINEZ.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

16. THE VIRGIN AND CHILD, AND ANGELS.

The Virgin standing in the centre, clad in a crimson robe and dark green mantle, nurses the Infant Christ; on her right are two standing angels, one of whom is playing a harp; on the other side, a group of three angels singing with a music book before them. Panel 33 × 24 in.

EARLY SPANISH SCHOOL.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

17. THE VIRGIN AND CHILD, AND TWO ANGELS.

The Virgin standing in the centre, clad in white robe and blue under-dress, nurses the Infant Christ; on her right stands an angel playing a mandolin; on her left another playing a harp. Panel 19 × 14½ in.

Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1880.

The semicircular apse forming the background is that of the old Cathedral of Salamanca. (See J. C. Robinson, Memoranda on Fifty Pictures.) The frame is of gold and silver thread.

SCHOOL OF SALAMANCA.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

18. PORTRAIT OF A PHILOSOPHER.

Bust of an old man, full face, long beard, holding with both hands to left a paper with diagrams, and dated 1644. Canvas (circular) 18 in.

By GIUSEPPE DE RIBERA, called "LO SPAGNOLETTO." Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON

19. PORTRAIT OF MARIANA OF AUSTRIA, SECOND WIFE OF PHILIP IV.
(A.D. 1634-1696).

Half-length, three-quarters to left, in black dress, scalloped lace collar, and gold chain; hair in ringlets tied with red ribbon and ornamented with white feather. Canvas 28 × 23 in.

This portrait is supposed to be from the Altamira Gallery. Exhibited, Manchester Exhibition, 1857; Royal Academy, 1875. (See Curtis, No. 238; Justi, p. 400.) From the H. Baillie collection.

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by HERCULES B. BRABAZON, ESQ.

20. A GIRL.

Bust, life-size, of a girl turned and looking slightly to left and raising her veil; neck and left shoulder bare. Canvas  $20\frac{1}{2} \times 15\frac{1}{2}$  in. (See Curtis, No. 430; Waagen, ii. 199; Head, 185.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by CAPT. G. L. HOLFORD, C.I.E.

21. POSTHUMOUS PORTRAIT OF DON MIGUEL MAÑARA.

Don Miguel Mañara was the founder of the hospital in Seville, and the friend and patron of the painter.

By MURILLO.

Lent by SIR CHARLES ROBINSON.

22. THE VIRGIN AND CHILD, WITH ST. JOHN AND ST. ANTHONY.

Small full-length figures; the Virgin seated facing on a throne and looking down at the Infant Christ Who, seated on her lap, blesses a Saint kneeling in adoration and holding a lily; the right hand of the Virgin rests on the shoulder of the infant St. John, who looks facing and holds a scroll in his hands: in the foreground on right a dish with fruit; the base of the throne is inscribed "LUISI VARGASI 1566." Panel  $21\frac{1}{2} \times 15\frac{1}{2}$  in.

From the Louis Philippe collection. Exhibited, Manchester, 1857.

By LUIS DE VARGAS.

23. VIRGIN AND CHILD.

Small full-length figures; the Virgin in blue dress seated before a colonnade, looks down at the Infant Christ, Who, seated on her knees, places His hands around her neck; through the colonnade is seen a landscape with buildings to right and left. Panel  $20 \times 15$  in.

25. UNA CORRIDA DE NOVILLOS; OR, BULL-BAITING SCENE IN THE PRESENCE OF PHILIP III.

View of the arena with scenes of bull fights and groups of spectators; in the foreground a crowd of other spectators, whose attention is directed to a wounded man, who is being carried from the arena; in the distance is seen the Royal party in a pavilion. Signed IUAN CASTILLO. Panel  $42 \times 77$  in.

This scene represents not a regular bull fight but a sport in which the whole populace took part. On these occasions young bulls were let loose into the arena, and any one who liked might descend and join in the contest. The custom still continues.

By JUAN DEL CASTILLO.

Lent by J. HORNE, ESQ.

26. ST. ILDEFONSO RECEIVING THE CHASUBLE.

In the interior of the church the Saint kneeling before the altar is invested by the Virgin, who has the Infant Christ on her knees, and two angels with a richly embroidered Chasuble; the Virgin is surrounded by angels who hover around; on the left kneels an Acolyte in prayer. Panel  $30 \times 22$  in.

"St. Ildefonso, Archbishop of Toledo wrote a book in defence of the perpetual virginity of the Holy Virgin. In consequence the Virgin regarded him with special favour. One day as he entered his cathedral he perceived that the high altar was surrounded by a blaze of light, and beheld the Virgin seated on his ivory episcopal throne surrounded by a multitude of angels chanting. He bowed to the ground in adoration of the heavenly vision, and was thus addressed by the Virgin: "Come hither, most faithful servant of God, and receive this robe, which I have brought thee from the treasury of my Son." Then the Virgin threw over him a chasuble of heavenly tissue, which was adjusted on his shoulders by two attendant angels. From that night the ivory chair remained unoccupied and the celestial vestment unworn, till the days of the presumptuous Archbishop Sisiberto, who died miserably in consequence of seating himself in the one and attempting to array himself in the other." Jameson, Legends of the Monastic Orders.

SCHOOL OF ALONSO BERRUGUETE.

Lent by SIR JOHN STIRLING-MAXWELL, BART., M.P.

By MURILLO.

Lent by SIR CHARLES TURNER, K.C.I.E.

35. THE FLOWER-GIRL.

A young girl seated on a stone bench, dressed in a yellowish bodice and over-sleeve with yellow-brown petticoat, white sleeves, and under-dress; over her left shoulder a brown embroidered scarf, on the end of which she holds four roses, and smilingly asking for custom ; a white scarf is wound round her head, which is turned to the spectator, with a rose stuck in it ; on left a pilaster ; on right a landscape with bushes. Canvas 47 × 38 in.

Buchanan, Memoirs of Painting I., 255, says that this picture, formerly in M. Randon de Boisset's collection, was sold at the Calonne sale to Desenfans and bequeathed by his heir, Sir F. Bourgeois, to Dulwich College. (See Curtis, No. 426. Engraved in Head, p. 182.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by the GOVERNORS OF DULWICH COLLEGE.

36. PORTRAIT OF DON ANDRES DE ANDRADE.

Full length, life-size, figure to left, looking at the spectator, in dark doublet with slashed sleeves, knee breeches, white stockings and golilla or narrow white collar ; his right hand rests on the head of a dog ; in his left his hat ; a sword is girt to his side ; behind him, a balustrade, and on the left a square column, the pedestal of which is inscribed, DN. ANDRES DE ANDRADE Y COL. ; above, his coat of arms. Canvas 78 × 46 in.

This picture was purchased from Don Antonio Bravo by Sir J. M. Brackenbury, British Consul at Cadiz. It passed into the collection of King Louis Philippe and thence into that of Mr. Thomas Baring. Andrade was conductor of the processions in the cathedral of Seville. (See Curtis, No. 457.)

Lent by the EARL OF NORTHBROOK, G.C.I.E.

37. PORTRAIT OF A GIRL

Half-length, life-size, slightly turned to the right, in yellow and white dress, white lace tippet ; large jewel on her breast ; necklet of pearls, and red jewelled rosette in her hair. Canvas 21 × 17 in.

SCHOOL OF MURILLO.

Lent by MARTIN COLNAGHI, ESQ.

39. THE MAGDALEN.

Full-length, life-size figure of the Magdalen in long black robe, seated, resting her head on her hand, her elbow being placed upon a table ; contemplating a skull ; her left hand is placed on an hour-glass ; a lighted candle near her on the table ; a torn letter at her feet. Canvas 57 × 45 in.

"A most characteristic specimen and truly Spanish. The Magdalen repents in sackcloth and ashes, and not with the nudities and allurements of Italian treatment, which tempt to a repetition of her sins."—RICHARD FORD.

By FRANCISCO ZURBARAN.

Lent by the RIGHT HON. SIR CLARE FORD, G.C.B.

40. VIRGIN AND CHILD.

Nearly full-length figure of the Virgin seated facing, regards the Infant Child, Who reclines on a white cloth on her lap; His back is supported by her left hand, which holds the drapery; with the right she bares her breast and offers it to the Infant, Who turns His face towards the spectator. Canvas 41 × 31 in.

Exhibited at the Royal Academy, 1873. This picture is supposed to be the one referred to by Murillo in his will; he was painting it for a weaver in discharge of a debt for "nine veras of satin." (See Curtis, No. 110.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by the RIGHT HON. SIR CLARE FORD, G.C.B.

41. THE VIRGIN AS "MATER PURISSIMA."

Half-length, life-size figure, facing, looking upwards; her hands crossed on her bosom; white dress and blue mantle. Canvas 27 × 20 in. Engraved in "Legends of the Madonna," by Mrs. Jameson, p. 52. (See Curtis, No. 76.)

Lent by CAPT. G. L. HOLFORD, C.I.E.

42. PORTRAIT OF A LADY.

Half-length, life-size, figure turned to right, holding a lap dog, a key in her left hand; blue dress; brown mantle; long hair tied with red ribbon; a jewel suspended from a ribbon round her neck; pearl necklace. Canvas 29½ × 23½ in.

By JACINTO JERONIMO DE ESPINOSA.

Lent by SIR CHARLES TURNER, G.C.I.E.

43. PORTRAIT OF PHILIP IV. (1621-1665).

Three-quarter length figure, life-size, turned to left, red doublet with silver embroidery, white silk sleeves and white falling collar; the left arm on his sword; in left hand his hat; in right his staff. Canvas 50½ × 38 in.

"A genuine work of the master . . . ; the harmony of the clear colours is very seldom to be met with in Velazquez's pictures. It is clear and tender like the finest Metzu. A masterpiece in colouring and eminence" (W. Burger, Velazquez et ses Œuvres, p. 278, &c.) From the Bonchardon and Tronchin collections. (See Curtis, No. 319; Justi, 304.)

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by the GOVERNORS OF DULWICH COLLEGE.

44. CHILD AND SERVING MAN. Portrait study from life.

The child, a young girl about three years old, is seated before a table, on which is a silver plate containing grapes; she holds some of the fruit in her right hand, whilst her left, sketched in only, is grasped by a man, who bends over her; the head only of the latter figure is completely finished; the draperies and accessories are only sketched in. Canvas 29 × 23 in.

This is a masterly study from the life, doubtless the portrait of the infant child of some noble Spanish personage (perhaps one of the painter's own children); and in the exuberance of his artistic power, Velazquez chose to depict also the serving-man, occupied in amusing and keeping the child quiet during the operation. (J. C. Robinson, Memoranda on Fifty Pictures.) From the Earl of Clare's collection.

45. PORTRAIT OF DON GASPAR DE GUZMAN, CONDE DUQUE DE OLIVAREZ (A.D. 1587-1643).

Bust, three-quarters, to left, wearing a golilla or stiff linen collar, and black dress, over which is a cloak partly concealing the green cross of Alcantara on his breast. Canvas  $26\frac{1}{2} \times 22\frac{1}{2}$  in.

"Purchased from the celebrated Madrid Gallery of General Meade."—RICHARD FORD. Exhibited Royal Academy, 1870, 1895.

Olivarez was the favourite and prime minister of Philip IV., and exercised almost unbounded authority. His severe measures towards the Catalans and Portuguese, however, made him very unpopular, and Philip IV. was compelled to dismiss him from his service; he died soon afterwards. (See Curtis, No. 177.)

Lent by the RIGHT HON. SIR CLARE FORD, G.C.B.

50. CHRIST BEARING THE CROSS.

Full-length, life-size figure, in long dark robe, advancing towards the spectator, looking down and bearing the Cross; buildings and figures in the background; in the foreground on left, a scroll inscribed 'FRANCISC. RIBALTA FECIT ANNO 1612.' Canvas  $58 \times 44$  in.

"This solemn specimen of the great Spanish imitator of Sebastiano del Piombo was painted by him in 1612 for the Convent of St. Catarina at Zaragossa (see Cav. Bermudez Diccionario, iv. 174). It was stolen from the Convent by the French. I bought it at Valencia in September, 1831, out of the celebrated gallery of Pesanera. There is a replica of it at Magdalen College, Oxford."—RICHARD FORD. Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1873.

By FRANCISCO RIBALTA.

Lent by the RIGHT HON. SIR CLARE FORD, G.C.B.

51. TWO FRANCISCAN MONKS.

Full-length, life-size figures. A monk is seated on the ground, apparently ill, resting his back against a tree; his companion, standing on the left, places both hands on the sick man's head, and looks up as if imploring a blessing; buildings on the left. Canvas  $63 \times 42$  in.

"Sometimes called The Good Samaritan. It was painted for the small cloister of the Franciscan Convent at Seville. This picture, which was too stiff to be rolled up, was in Marshal Soult's hurried flight after Salamanca left behind in the Alcazar. It afterwards fell into the possession of Mr. Julian B. Williams, the Vice-Consul of Andalusia, of whom it was purchased in 1831."—RICHARD FORD. (See Curtis, No. 400; Ford, Handbook, i. 190; Head, p. 186; Stirling, ii. 836; Waagen, ii. 223.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by the RIGHT HON. SIR CLARE FORD, G.C.B.

52. PORTRAIT OF THE PAINTER.

Half-length, life-size figure, to right, looking at the spectator; black coat and golilla; right hand on his breast; on a table before him book and skull. Canvas  $32 \times 22$  in.

Born 1601 at Granada, studied sculpture under Juan Martinez Montanez and painting under Pacheco and Juan del Castillo; was employed by Olivarez; as a painter he combined clear and brilliant colouring with decision in drawing and great power of imagination; died at Granada, in which city all the churches are enriched by his pictures.

By ALONSO CANO.

53. THE VIRGIN AND CHILD WITH ST. JOHN.

Full-length, life-size figures. The Virgin, seated on a bench, holds with both hands the Child Who, seated on her lap, points to her with His left hand; St. John stands at her feet, with a bird in his right hand and a reed cross in his left; the Child is wrapped in a white cloth with green and red border and fringe like the Moorish stuffs worn by peasants; in the background, architecture. Canvas 64 × 44 in.

An altar-piece purchased in 1838 from the convent of Madre de Dios, Seville, where Murillo's daughter Francisca took the veil. Exhibited at Manchester in 1857. (See Curtis, No. 155; Waagen, iv. 449; Stirling, iii. 1423.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by SIR JOHN STIRLING-MAXWELL, BART., M.P.

54. PORTRAIT OF POPE INNOCENT X. (A.D. 1645-1655.)

Half-length, life-size, figure, turned slightly to the right and looking at the spectator; red cap and cape and white collar. Canvas 31 × 27 in. (See Justi, p. 359; Curtis, No. 187.)

This is probably a repetition of the picture in the Hermitage. Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1887. Engraved in the Lebrun Gallery.

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by the DUKE OF WELLINGTON.

55. PORTRAIT OF MARIANA OF AUSTRIA, SECOND WIFE OF PHILIP IV. (A.D. 1634-1696).

Nearly full-length figure, life-size, to left, in black hooped dress and basque; double row of pearls crossing from shoulder to shoulder; hair in concentric rolls and decorated with feathers; handkerchief in left hand; right resting on chair; a clock on a table to right; crimson curtain to left. Lent by the RIGHT HON. SIR CLARE FORD, G.C.B.

59. THE INFANT DON BALTASAR CARLOS, ELDEST SON OF PHILIP IV. AND ISABEL DE BOURBON (A.D. 1629 1646).

Don Baltasar Carlos, as a boy, wearing a costume enriched with silver and gold, a crimson scarf and a plumed black hat, is mounted on a prancing pony, in a court of the palace, and attended by several officers, among whom is Olivarez receiving a lance from an attendant ; the King and Queen Isabel are seen at a balcony of the building probably the Royal mews, which serves for a background. Canvas 57 × 39 in.

Palomino iii. 332, refers to this picture as being in the possession of the Marquis de Liche, nephew of Olivarez. Judging from the age of the Prince, about twelve years old, it was painted about 1641, only two years before the fall of Olivarez. (See Curtis, No. 134 ; Justi, p. 324.) Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1870, 1890.

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by the DUKE OF WESTMINSTER, K.G.

60. PORTRAIT OF POMPEO LEONI, SCULPTOR.

Three-quarter length, life-size, figure turned to left, looking front, in black dress and small white ruff, sculpturing a bust of Philip II., which is placed on a table. Canvas 36 × 34 in. From the Louis Philippe collection. (See Justi, p. 53 ; Stirling, p. 340.) Exhibited, Manchester, 1857.

By DOMENICO THEOTOCOPULO, called "IL GRECO."

Lent by ARCHIBALD STIRLING, ESQ.

61. THE HOLY FAMILY AND ST. CATHERINE.

Full-length figures, larger than life. The Virgin seated, looking towards the front, dressed in red, a blue mantle covering her feet, holding the Infant Christ on her knees, Who extends His right hand to St. Catherine who kneeling to right is kissing it; behind the Virgin stands St. Joseph; and behind St. Catherine, St. Anne, holding in her left hand a basket of peaches and in her right a flower; in the foreground to right is a basket with orange and white clothes. Inscribed on the chair JUSEPE DI RIBERA ESPANOL ACCADEMICO Ro. F. 1643. Canvas  $79\frac{1}{2} \times 60\frac{1}{2}$  in. (See Justi, p. 343.)

This picture is one of the artist's most important works. It came from Genoa with the Lebrun collection.

By GIUSEPPE DE RIBERA called "LO SPAGNOLETTO."

Lent by the EARL OF NORTHBROOK, G.C.I.E.

62. THE INFANT CHRIST ASLEEP.

The Child lies on His right side on a couch extended across the canvas, naked, except for a cloth across His loins: beneath His head is a pillow; His right arm is extended forward; His left on His side; a red curtain is looped above His head. Canvas  $20 \times 37$  in.

From the collections of Sir Lawrence Dundas and W. Ellis Agar. It was brought from Spain in 1760. (See Curtis, No. 161.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by the DUKE OF WESTMINSTER, K.G.

63. PORTRAIT OF ISABEL DE BOURBON, FIRST WIFE OF PHILIP IV.

(A.D. 1602-1644).

Bust three-quarters to left, life-size, wearing black embroidered dress and ruff, ribbons in her hair, a rope of pearls crossing her breast and shoulders. Canvas  $25 \times 19$  in. Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1873. (See Curtis, No. 234; Justi, p. 275.)

"Painted by Velazquez in 1623, about the period when Charles I. of England was in Madrid seeking the hand of her daughter the Infanta Maria. Purchased from the collection of General Meade at Madrid."—RICHARD FORD.

67. PORTRAIT OF DON NICOLAS OMAZURINO (?).

Half-length figure, life-size, to right, in black habit with white puffed sleeves edged with black lace, and golilla, or white collar, holding a skull against his breast with both hands. Oval within a square. Canvas  $33 \times 30$  in.

Murillo was a warm friend of Omazurino, and painted his portrait and that of his wife, Isabel Malcampo, in 1672. (See Curtis, No. 471.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by CAPT. G. L. HOLFORD, C.I.E.

68. PORTRAIT OF DON FRANCISCO DE QUEVEDO Y VILLEGAS (A.D. 1580-1645).

Bust, life-size, to left, looking at the spectator, with abundant greyish frizzled hair, black dress, white golilla, and large double eye-glass on his nose. Canvas  $24 \times 22$  in. Exhibited at the Royal Academy, 1887.

Poet and novelist, was secretary to Queen Anne, wife of Philip II.; he so injured his sight by constant reading that he was unable to distinguish any object without the aid of glasses. This picture formerly belonged to Don Francisco Bruna at Seville. It is doubtless the portrait spoken of by Palomino (iii. 333) in which the poet is described as with glasses, which he was accustomed to wear. (See Curtis, No. 191; Justi, 278.)

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by the DUKE OF WELLINGTON.

75. TWO PEASANT BOYS.

Full length, life-size figures ; a ragged boy standing on the left with a jar in his right hand, and part of a loaf in his left ; he munches a mouthful of bread and looks down at his companion, who, with his legs and shoulder bare, sits on the ground amusing himself with two balls and an iron spike, which he thrusts into the ground ; a dog stands between them ; a wall on the right. Canvas 63½ x 39½ in.

This picture was probably in the Desenfans collection. It is the companion picture to another in the Dulwich Gallery representing three Peasant Boys. An early record of one of the two groups is probably the following reference in Evelyn's Journal on the sale of Lord Melford's effects at Whitehall, April 21, 1693—"Lord Godolphin bought the picture of the boys by Morillio, the Spaniard, for eighty guineas. Deare enough." (See Curtis, No. 435.)

102. PORTRAIT OF POPE INNOCENT X. (B. 1574; ELECTED POPE 1644; D. 1655).

Three-quarter length figure, life-size, seated to right, looking at the spectator, wearing a white linen robe, with white sleeves trimmed with lace, a rolling linen collar, red velvet cap and cape; his chair is crimson and has square posts, which are enriched with gold and surmounted by vase-shaped ornaments; his arms rest on the arms of the chair; in his left hand is a paper inscribed ALLA SANT<sup>TA</sup> N<sup>RO</sup> SIG<sup>RE</sup> INNOCENTIO X<sup>O</sup> PER; in background, red curtain. Canvas 38 × 53 in.

A replica of the picture in the Doria Palace, Rome. "The principal work of Velazquez at Rome in 1649, was the portrait of His Holiness Innocent X. by whom he was greatly distinguished. Recognising the virtue and merit of the artist, the Holy Father rewarded him with a gold medal bearing his own likeness in relief attached to a chain. Velazquez took a copy of the portrait to Spain. It is related that when the work was finished and placed in a chamber of the palace, a chamberlain entered the room, and seeing, as he thought, the Pope himself, he retired hastily and cautioned his companions in the ante-chamber to speak low, for His Holiness was within" (Palomino, iii. 337). Sir Joshua Reynolds pronounced it the finest picture in Rome. (See Curtis, No. 183.)

121. "LAS LANZAS"; OR, THE SURRENDER OF BRED A (JUNE 5, 1625).

In the centre of the picture is seen the vanquished Prince Justin of Nassau, giving up the keys of the city of Breda to the victorious Marquis of Spinola. The rest of the foreground is composed of officers of the respective armies; the victors are holding their lances upright—hence the title of "LAS LANZAS"; in the background are seen lines of troops, a camp, and fortifications. Canvas 120 × 143 in.

The original picture was painted about 1647 for the palace of Buen Retiro. The artist took unusual pains with this work out of respect to the memory of Spinola, who was his friend and travelling companion in Italy. It is one of the finest historical pictures in the world.

The figure in a grey dress and white hat to the right of the spectator is a portrait of Velazquez himself. (See Curtis, No. 36.)

134. THE WATER-CARRIER, "EL AGUADOR DE SEVILLE."

Three-quarter-length figures, life-size; a man, in tattered brown doublet, turned to the left with his left hand on a large earthen jar, hands a glass of water to a boy, who stands beside a table, on which is a smaller jar; another boy drinks from a pot. Canvas  $40 \times 30$  in.

This is the earliest picture of Velazquez of which we have any authentic record. It was painted about 1620 at Seville before the artist went to Madrid. In the inventory of Buen Retiro in 1700 it is called El Corno, Aguador de Sevilla. In 1780 it was in the Alcazar, Quarto del Rey. King Joseph Bonaparte took it with him in his flight from Madrid, but it was captured in his carriage with a quantity of plate and jewels at the rout of Vittoria and was afterwards presented by Ferdinand VII. to the Duke of Wellington. (See Curtis, No. 86; Justi, p. 70.) Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1886.

Full-length, life-size, figure standing to right, of a boy, about ten years of age in black dress and white golilla ; he wears an Order hanging at his breast, and holds a letter in his right hand ; with his left he lays his hat on a marble table which is supported by a lion with its paw on a globe ; behind him are a crimson curtain and a double looking-glass, in which he is seen reflected. Canvas 75 × 51 in.

The apartment in which the king stands is said to be the Sala de los Espejos in the old Palace at Madrid.

By JUAN CARREÑO DE MIRANDA.

Lent by SIR FRANCIS COOK, BART.

144. PORTRAIT OF MARIANA OF AUSTRIA, SECOND WIFE OF PHILIP IV. (A.D. 1634-1696).

Bust, life-size, three-quarters to left, wearing dark green dress with large puffed sleeves, gauze collarette trimmed with narrow ribbon and having large rosette in front ; her hair, which falls low on both shoulders, is adorned with a rosette of brown ribbons. Canvas 26 × 22 in.

One of the earliest portraits of the Queen, probably painted immediately after her marriage. Her hair is worn long, i.e., before she adopted the Spanish coiffure of the time. (See Curtis, No. 243.)

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by SIR FRANCIS COOK, BART.

145. THE VIRGIN.

Half-length, life-size, figure of the Virgin to left, in red dress and blue mantle and brown veil ; she presses her hand to her bosom, in the attitude of listening to the angel Gabriel. Canvas 28 × 23 in. (See Curtis, No. 74.)

From the collections of Joseph Bonaparte and Wynn Ellis.

148. CHRIST AFTER THE FLAGELLATION.

The Saviour, naked, but for a cloth about his loins, kneels as if to take up His garments, which lie in the foreground on the right; two angels with outspread wings, one in white, the other in reddish drapery are confronting Him; on the left is a column with rope, rods, &c. Canvas  $58 \times 41$  in. (See Curtis, No. 212, Justi, p. 244.)

Formerly towards the end of the last century in the collection got together by the picture dealer Noel Desenfans for Stanislaus Poniatowski, the last King of Poland. The Polish revolution having prevented the acceptance of the collection by making the pictures remain in Desenfans's hands, some of them were sold by him, but the major part were retained by him till his death, when they were bequeathed to his friend Sir Francis Bourgeois, R.A., who left them to Dulwich College, where they now constitute the Dulwich Gallery. This picture is described under No. 47 in the "Descriptive Catalogue" of the Desenfans Collection, 1802.

BY MURILLO.

Lent by SIR FRANCIS COOK, BART.

149. VIEW OF THE ALAMEDA AT SEVILLE.

Scene is a garden with long avenue of trees in the centre and with the House of the Inquisition at the end; in the foreground on the left are the so-called columns of Hercules; in front are various scenes of a duel with swords, two men fighting, a man looking with dismay at his two restive mules; on the right are horsemen, and up the avenue are various groups of people, carriages, &c.; houses to right and left. Canvas  $64 \times 42$  in.

From the Louis Philippe collection.

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by SIR WILLIAM FARRER.

150 BACCHUS, CALLED "LOS BORRACHOS" OR "LOS BEBEDORES."

Full-length, life-size figures. The half-naked Bacchus crowned with vine-leaves, sits enthroned on a cask, and smiles as he places a leafy crown on the head of a young soldier, who kneels before him; on the left is a peasant seated, and another, naked and crowned, reclines on a bank with a cup in his hand; on the right five jovial peasants, one of them laughing, observe with interest the comical ceremony; landscape background. Canvas  $65 \times 89$  in.

This is a copy of the famous picture at the Museo del Prado. Stirling assigns the work to the year 1624, founding his opinion on the signature to the sketch owned by Lord Heytesbury. But the authenticity of that signature may be questioned, since it was not customary for Velazquez to sign even his finished works. Moreover it is known that the picture was not paid for till five years later. The whole scene is irresistibly comical, and the success of the artist in seizing a laugh and fixing it on the canvas without converting it into a grimace is an unparalleled triumph of skill. (See Curtis, No. 27, Justi, p. 129.)

After VELAZQUEZ.

151. A SPANISH BEGGAR.

Three-quarter-length, life-size, figure of a man in ragged dress standing front, leaning on a crutch, holding in his right hand a wine-flask resting on a globe, on which is painted a landscape with peasants dancing before a bodega; on the frame is inscribed "Viva el vino, leche de los viejos." Canvas 56 × 48 in.

This picture, probably painted in 1624, was brought from Spain by the French officer, General Caulaincourt, and was purchased of him by an English officer at Genoa in 1818. (See Curtis, No. 81.)

By VELAZQUEZ.

Lent by SIR FRANCIS COOK, BART.

152. THE HOLY FAMILY.

Three-quarter length, life-size figures; the Virgin seated front, in red dress and blue mantle, is nursing the Infant Child, whom she holds on her lap; on the right stands St. Joseph, who bends forward and looks at the Child. Canvas 41 × 33½ in.

This picture is painted in the artist's latest style. (See also No. 159.)

By DOMENICO THEOTOCOPULO, called "IL GRECO." Lent by M. R. DE MADRAZO.

153. ST. JOHN AND THE LAMB.

The child is seated in the ground looking front, his right hand touches the neck of the lamb by his side; his left hand, holding a cross and a scroll, rests on the back of the lamb. Canvas 38 × 28 in.

Purchased about 1810 for Andrew Wilson, who brought it from Genoa. Exhibited at the Royal Academy, 1891. (See Curtis, No. 328.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by the DUKE OF WESTMINSTER, K.G.

154. LANDSCAPE.

A landscape with figures on horseback and on foot moving along a road towards a castle on the top of a hill on the right. Inscribed in the left corner, MORILLO f. HISPAN. Canvas 24 × 21 in. From the W. Graham Collection.

Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1877. (See Curtis, No. 408.)

By MURILLO.

Lent by ANDREW K. HICHENS, ESQ.

155. ST. GEORGE.

Small full-length figure of the Saint, with nimbus, standing towards right, in armour, wearing red mantle with jewelled clasp; he is holding in his right hand his lance, which has a pennon with a red cross on it; his left hand rests on his shield, which also has a red cross; the dead dragon is lying coiled round his feet; dark background. Panel 31 × 15½ in. Exhibited, Royal Academy, 1893.

SPANISH SCHOOL.

Lent by CAPT. G. L. HOLFORD, C.I.E.

156. THE HEALING OF ST. BONAVENTURA.

Life-size figures; the child Saint, who is held by a monk, is healed from sickness by St. Francis, who places his left hand on the child's breast; before them kneel the rejoicing parents of the saint their hands raised in astonishment; behind and on the left stand monks and others; on the right trees and shrubs. Canvas 91 x 84 in.

When a child of four years old the Saint was seized with a serious illness, but by the intercession of St. Francis of Assisi he was restored to health; and received in consequence the name of Bona Ventura.

This picture and Nos. 157, 158, together with a fourth which was in Paris, are mentioned by Head, p. 114, as being formerly in the Church of St. Bonaventure at Seville.

By FRANCISCO HERRERA EL VIEJO.

Lent by the EARL OF CLARENDON.

157. ST. BONAVENTURA RECEIVED INTO THE ORDER OF ST. FRANCIS.

Life-size figures; St. Bonaventura in black habit, kneels in an attitude of devotion, to left before St. Francis and other Franciscan monks all seated; on the ground, roses and girdle. Canvas 93 x 84 in.

This picture is a companion to Nos. 156, 158; it evidently represents the Saint being received into the Order of which he subsequently, in 1256, became General. On this last occasion he was thunderstruck at the news, and prostrating himself on the ground he with many tears implored the divine light and direction.

By FRANCISCO HERRERA EL VIEJO.

Lent by the EARL OF CLARENDON.

158. ST. BONAVENTURA RECEIVING THE HOLY COMMUNION FROM AN ANGEL.

Life-size figures; the Saint, kneeling to left in attitude of devotion before an altar, receives the consecrated Host from an angel; a priest standing at the altar is breaking the Host; on the right and between the angel and the Saint is seen the congregation. Canvas 93½ x 85 in.

The Saint being of a humble disposition and regarding himself as the most ungrateful and basest of sinners, this humility sometimes withheld him from the Holy Table. But God was pleased by a miracle to overcome his fears and recompense him. "Several days had passed," say the acts of his canonization, "nor durst he yet presume to present himself at the heavenly banquet. But whilst he was hearing mass and meditating on the Passion of Christ to crown his humility and love, God put into his hands by the ministry of an angel part of the consecrated Host taken from the hand of a priest." By this precious favour his soul was drowned in a torrent of pure delights. Butler's Lives of the Saints. (See also Nos. 156, 157.)

By FRANCISCO HERRERA EL VIEJO.

Lent by the EARL OF CLARENDON.

159. ST. MARTIN.

St. Martin in armour and ruff, on horseback, riding towards the right, is dividing with his sword his cloak with a naked beggar, who stands beside him; on the right a marble obelisk surmounted by a globe; mountainous landscape and trees in the background. Canvas 55 x 33½ in.

By DOMENICO THEOTOCOPULO, called "IL GRECO."

Lent by JOHN SARGENT, ESQ., A.R.A.

160. ST. THOMAS OF VILLANEUVA.

The Saint wearing a mitre and accompanied by an attendant who holds a crozier stands in an archway giving alms to a kneeling beggar, who is surrounded by other beggars: one is seated on the ground; on the right stands a woman holding an infant, with a boy at her side; above is the Virgin, seated on clouds, with the Infant Saviour in her arms and two children clinging to her lap; a church is seen through an opening on the left. Canvas 51 x 29 in.

Painted about 1678, for the Chapel of St. Thomas of Villanueva in the Convent of St. Augustine, outside the Carmona Gate at Seville. From the collection of King Louis Philippe. (See Curtis, No. 398.)

727. A COMPLETE WAR HARNESS of the end of the 15th century of bright steel, decorated with bands of fluting and ornamented in places with pierced designs. Consisting of the breastplate, triangular turnover and gussets, placcate, three plate tasses and tassets of single plates, back plate with V-shaped hollow and garde de rein of three plates, armourer's mark on the lowest plate, espallier pauldrons, fan-like plates covering the shoulder-blades, rere and vambraces, coudres gauntlets with long pointed cuffs, each bearing the armourer's mark, and ribbed knuckle-plates, large and complete cuisses of two plates with triangular ridge, the knee-pieces covering the upper part of the jambs, fan-shaped plates on either side. Jambs and pointed-toed sollerettes, gorget and armet, the crown of unusually delicate form and coming to a sharp ridge, it opens down the front of the chin and has the cheek-pieces hinged at the top. The armourer's mark "Leon and Castille" is twice repeated at the back of the crown, which is pierced at the top for the attachment of the crest. The suit is mounted on a saddle of later date, but the chanfron mainfaire and bit are of the same period as the rest of the suit ; the chanfron is ribbed and surmounted by a ribbed rondelle ; the weapons worn are by the left side of the knight, a sword wheel pommel, and drooping quillons ; the hilt is plated with silver, the sheath and hanger are copied from that, worn in the effigy of John de la Pole, Duke of Suffolk, in Wingfield Church, Suffolk. A dagger, "a rouelle," is worn on the right side and a mace of blackened steel with broadening flanges hangs at the saddle-bow. The restorations in this suit consist only of the two rondelles, the right knee-plate, and the right espallier.

754. SILVER CANOPY, Spanish, of the 17th century, supported on four embossed silver columns, with gilt bands and capitals. A moulded cornice, with embossed frieze, connects the roof of rich repoussé work, in scrolls and flowers, with four oval embossed shields at the corners, surmounted by a circular dome divided into panels with four oval gilt bosses, one being inscribed. A silver crown with cross and bell surmounts the whole. The base contains an inscribed stand for throne, with silver border and gilt shields with cherub heads. This important work of art was evidently constructed to contain the representation of a Patron Saint, and was probably used for Processional purposes. The inscription on the dome states that it was presented to the Carmona Convent in the year 1637, and cost the sum of 1,000 ducats.

MANUSCRIPTS AND BOOKS LENT BY THE EARL OF CRAWFORD, K.T.

817. ARMORIAL GENERAL. Arms and Heraldry. Manuscript on vellum of the early part of the 15th century, with 236 coats of arms and flags with heraldic bearings richly emblazoned. Written by an officer of arms, a native of the Province of Beyra, in Portugal, whilst he was attending the Council of Constance in 1416.

818. BEATUS, ST. (vulgarly called San Biecco, Abbot of Valcavado near Saldano in Castilla la Vieja, died A.D. 798) [Commentarius in Apocalypsim.]—At end: Codex Apocalipsis duodenario ecclesiarum numero ita duodenario ordine librorum incisione distinctio.—Explanatio Danielis prophete ad auctore b'i joh'i (S. Hieronymo)—In 1 vol., large folio, manuscript on vellum. Circa 1150.

With 110 miniatures, all very large, but many of them nearly 14 inches by 6 in dimension, and some larger still, painted on grounds of deep and vivid colour—including a circular map of the world. Calf binding, in a morocco case. Written in North Spain (Old Castile or Aragon).

The finest extant monument of Spanish graphic art in the time of Alfonso VII. the Emperor. According to the opinion of Comte A. de Bastard, there is no twelfth century MS. in existence which can presume to rival this grand volume in artistic value.

819. AL KUR'ĀN. Surat 3 and 4. Written on vellum, 117 ff., in gold letters, large Maghrabi characters, tending to Cufic, five lines to the page. 4to. Hispano-Mauresque, about A.D. 1000.

820. CASSIODORUS. Expositio digesta Psalmorum. Large folio. Manuscript on vellum. 12th century.

Written by a Spanish scribe named Cumanxius; with numerous ornamental initials of interlaced work, some of which bear a striking resemblance to the decorative work of the early Celtic school.

821. SERVICES FOR THE FIRST NIGHTS OF PASSOVER, for the Sabbath preceding the Festival of Passover, and for the Days of the Passover Festival. Folio. Hebrew Manuscript on vellum, profusely illuminated and ornamented. About the middle of the 16th century.

822. MISSALE mixtum secundum regulam beati Isidori dictum Mozarabes. Impensis Nobilis M. goricii, per P. hagenbach, Toleti, 1500. Folio.

823. BREVIARIUM secundum regulam beati hysidori. Per Petrum hagenbach. Impressum in regali civitate, Toleti, 1502. Folio.

MANUSCRIPTS AND BOOKS.

824. "VALERIO MAXIMO." Zaragoza, 1495. Black letter.

Brunet mentions this edition of Valerio Maximo, of which he does not appear to have seen a copy, as beaucoup plus précieuse than that printed at Seville in 1514, which he says is rare. In a most curious colophon occurs the following, "Here ends Valerius Maximus, which the magnificent nobleman Hugh de Urries translated when he was ambassador in England for the Most Serene King John I. of Aragon.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

825. LA PHILOSOFIA MORAL DEL ARISTOTEL. Zaragoza, 1509. Black letter.

This book was in the collection of the celebrated Spanish collector Salva, and has his emblem on the cover, i.e. two clasped hands. It was translated into "Romance," for the use of Don Carlos, Prince of Viana.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

826. LOS V LIBROS DE SENECA. Toledo, 1510. Black letter.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

827. MAR DE ISTORIAS of Hernan Perez de Guzman. Printed at Valladolid (by Diego de Gumiel) 1512. Black letter. Title-page wanting.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

828. LEYES, ORDENANÇAS PREMATICAS Y DECLARACIONES de las ordenanças que hablan de las Lanas y Pãnos. Toledo, 1528. Black letter.

This book treats of the Laws, Ordinances, &c., which relate to the wool trade and manufacturers of cloth, and of certain charters given to the hat and cap makers.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

829. DE INSULIS nuper inventis Ferdinandi Cortesii ad Carolum V., etc. 1532.

These letters of Fernando Cortés give an account of the Conquest of Mexico.

To these are added others giving an account of the success in spreading the Christian religion in those districts.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

830. SOBRE CARTA DE LAS LEYES, que hablan sobre los Pobres con la Instruction que se ha de tener en ello. 1540. Black letter.

This book has several pages missing at the end. It treats of the laws relating to the poor both in Castille and the Indies, and is very curious.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

831. QUADERNO DE ALGUNAS LEYES : que no estan en el Libro de las Prematicas &c. Printed at Medino del Campo by Pedro de Castro, 1544. Black letter.

This book treats of various laws apparently omitted from the code of the day. Some of them are curious, as for instance the law excluding gypsies (called Egyptians) from the kingdom, and the law that beggars must beg only in their own country.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

832. LAS QUATROCIENTAS RESPUESTAS a otras tantas Preguntas, con quinientos Proverbios ; y la Segunda Parte en que se contienen otras Quatrocientas Respuestas. By Luis de Escobar. Valladolid 1550 and 1552.

Two remarkable volumes of didactic rhyme. The first originally printed in 1545. They are chiefly in the form of question and answer and are somewhat in the style of the English Tusser. The author was a Minorite Friar.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

833. EPISTOLAS del glorioso Doctor Sant Hieronymo. 1548. Black letter.

This book was in the Museo del Montino and has the stamp of the Museum.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

834. CHRONICA DEL REY DON ALFONSO EL ONZENO. Valladolid, 1551. Gothic letter. 1st ed.

This chronicle is attributed to J. Nuñez de Villasan. From the De Salva Library.

The king is represented on the frontispiece riding in the ancient Spanish manner called "à la estradiota." The Moors rode "à la gineta," or with short stirrups. A man who rode in both styles was known as "Ginete en ambas modas."

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

- 835. CHRONICA DEL REY FERNANDO IV. Valladolid, 1554. Gothic letter.

Sometimes attributed to Fernan Sanchez de Tovar. From the Salva Library.

Fernando IV. was known in history as "el emplazado," i.e. the "cited," as at an execution one of the Carbajales cited him to appear before God in thirty days. He died within the "cited" time.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

- 836. CORONICA DE DON ALVARO DE LUNA. Milan, 1546.

Alvaro de Luna was Grand Constable of Castille under John II. He was court favourite, and being accused of aiming at supreme power, was beheaded at Valladolid. He is buried in Toledo.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

- 837. FLOS SANTORUM. Seville (en casa de Juan Gutierrez en la calle de Genova) 1569. Black letter.

This street is still the resort of booksellers.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

- 838. CORONICA DEL SERENISSIMO REY DON PEDRO, hijo del Rey don Alonso de Castilla. Pamplona, 1591. Black letter. Another edition of No. 19.

This is the chronicle of Don Pedro the Cruel, known in Spain as "el Justiciero and "the Governor."

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

- 839. CORONICA, DEL SERENISSIMO REY DON PEDRO, hijo del Rey Don Alonso de Castilla. Pamplona (por Pedro Porralis) 1591. By Pedro Lopez de Ayala.

The author of the Chronicle was among the most distinguished poets of the latter part of the 14th century, and the best prose writer of the same period. Taken prisoner at the battle of Naxera in 1367 he was brought to England, where he wrote a part of his poems on "a courtly life."

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

- 840. CORONICA, del Esforçado Principe y Capitan Jorge Castrioto Rey de Epiro o' Albania. Translated from the Portuguese. By Ivanochoa de la Salde. Madrid, 1597. Black letter.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

841. DISCURSOS DEL AMPARO DE LOS LEGITIMOS POBRES Y REDUCCION DE LOS FINGIDOS. By Doctor Christoval Perez de Herrera. Madrid, 1598.

A most curious book, an attempt to deal with the "Unemployed" and to expose false poverty. It had no success.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

842. LA DESCRIPCION GENERAL DE AFRICA, Segunda Parte. Malaga, 1599. By L. del Marmol Cardvajal.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

843. CENTURIA, O HISTORIA, de los famosos hechos del Gran Conde de Barcelona don Bernardo Barcino, y de don Zinofre su hijo, y otros Cavalleros de la Provincia de Cathaluña. Barcelona, 1600. By Estevan Barellas.

This historical Romance is believed to have been originally written by a Rabbi during the period of the domination of the Moors in Spain.

Lent by CHARLES BUTLER, ESQ.

844. LA VERDADERA HISTORIA DEL REY DON RODRIGO. Valencia, 1606.

This book was written in 1589 by Miguel de Luna of Granada, interpreter of Philip II. It professes to be a translation from the Arabic and to be a history of the conquest of Spain, but must be looked upon as a romance. First printed in two parts. 1592 and 1600.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

845. HISTORIA DI FILIPE II. REY DE ESPAÑA, by Luis Cabrera de Cordova. Madrid 1619.

This is the history of Philip II., written for his son Philip III. The title-page with the portrait of Philip II. is very fine.

Lent by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF PORTSMOUTH.

846. MS. with illuminated title-page, in which DON JUAN ALPHONSO DE GUERRA Y SANDOVA, Knight of the Order of Santiago, Chronicler and King at Arms of Philip V., sets forth the titles, honours, services, etc. of the noble families of Garay, Leaniz, Mimenza, and Arrieta. It is dated at the Imperial and Crowned City of Madrid, 1736.
